

Submitted photo

Scholarship money donated to Cammeo Lazzaro

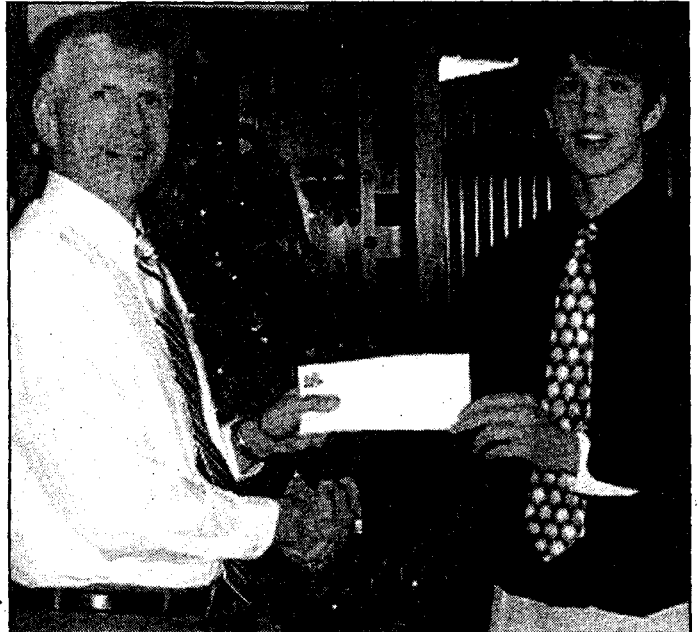

In conjunction with this Saturday's "Hoops for Hope" event at Laker Hall, four local banks are underwriting $500 scholarships named in memory of Oswego's Mike O'Brien to the four basketball teams playing on Saturday. In the photo above, from left are Oswego varsity boys basketball coach Warren Shaw and Buc player Mike Sellars; Sue Cahill, branch manager of Pathfinder Bank; Josh Lazzaro, brother of burn victim Cammeo Lazzaro, an Oswego High School student; and Will O'Brien of Pathfinder Bank. The Oswego team asked that the scholarship money be donated to Cammeo Lazzaro.

Submitted photo

Bishop Ludden scholarship

Connor Sweeney (left), a senior basketball player at Bishop Ludden High School, has been selected to receive a $500 Mike O'Brien Scholarship. Sweeney is posing with Bishop Ludden coach Pat Donnelly. This scholarship is being underwritten by Alliance Bank. Bishop Ludden will face Fulton during Saturday's "Hoops for Hope" event at Laker Hall.

Submitted photo

Fulton scholarship

Steve Osbourne (left) of Fulton Savings Bank congratulates Derek Trail of the Fulton varsity boys basketball team for being selected to receive the $500 Mike O'Brien Scholarship being underwritten by Fulton Savings Bank. Fulton will take on Bishop Ludden on Saturday at "Hoops for Hope," the annual event held in memory of Oswego's Mike O'Brien to raise money for the Hereditary Disease Foundation.